Fall
2025

Do you know...A YEAR AHEAD?

For over 20 years, Weather Trends International has been providing 100+ Fortune 1,000 customers and hundreds of farmers with YEAR-AHEAD weather and predictive sales forecasting technology.

With FarmCast® you'll get a daily email 5-page report (or website) tracking the weather in your farm, but more importantly, short & long range forecasts impacting your crops. A weekly World Grains report is included and the website wt360.com allows for custom text and email weather alerts for your farm. The best part, it's only $399/year and takes 5 minutes to sign up.

Why Weather Trends?

With FarmCast® weekly, year-ahead, forecasts, you'll know the wet, dry, hot, and cold weeks, to better plan strategic farming decisions

“I looked at many options for long-term weather forecasting. Nobody could match WTI accuracy... The best part for us was the compliments we received on the seed production side.”
